EXCLUSIVE STORY
By Andy Ruff

The canine star of hit comedy movie, It's a Dog's Life, was finally discovered yesterday peering out of the window of a closed branch of Pet Planet in Milton. Barney had been missing for two weeks and his owners were extremely concerned for his welfare. It is thought that the golden retriever had snuck inside the disused building and got stuck when the door closed behind him!

Missing movie star Barney was spotted in an abandoned Pet Planet store yesterday.

Howling hound comes home
The dog was spotted by security guard Peter Poodly yesterday. "I was patrolling the disused shopping centre when I heard some unusual howling sounds. I nearly cried when I realised that I'd found my favourite movie star!" exclaimed Peter. Wally and Wendy are planning to resume filming next week.

Owls a relaxing read

COUNSELLORS WRITE BOOK TO HELP CHILDREN DEAL WITH ANXIETY AND STRESS

By Chloe Warburton

Three fluffy and friendly owls could help children relax thanks to a new book by two Shepparton authors.

Partners Lisa Hemmings and Allan O'Keefe are counsellors and work with children in their Chill Skills for Kids sessions, which help children deal with anxiety and stress.

Their new book, Imagine Me With The Three Owls, is full of colourful pastel drawings by Ms Hemmings and descriptive passages that help children relax as they imagine the three owls in the forest and their friends.

The words for the book came from a relaxation CD Ms Hemmings released as a supplement for the Chill Skills for Kids sessions.

"The book is something fun — it's a simple, fun activity that parents can use to help their kids relax at home," Ms Hemmings said.

"The kids get lost and imagine themselves in the story and parents will feel themselves relaxing as well while they're reading."

The vivid illustrations portray the three owls, as well as the field and forest they live in, and encourages children to imagine themselves in the story.

"Kids are the absolute kings of imagination, so they can just get lost in words," Mr O'Keefe said.

"It's about self-acceptance and connecting with nature, about accepting who we are," Ms Hemmings said.

"Focus on your strength and what you're good at... self-esteem leads to confidence."

"I chose owls because it's about the magic of night time — night shouldn't be scary, but it can be for kids. Owls own the night."

Free activities involving Imagine Me With The Three Owls are also available from Ms Hemmings' blog.

Ms Hemmings said trauma in children could be as simple as changing schools or moving towns, as well as bullying and mental illnesses within families.

"Sometimes it's just that families are busy — it doesn't have to be a major trauma," she said.

"Parents wonder if they're the only ones who have stressed kids and we want them to know they're not alone."

Ms Hemmings and Mr O'Keefe will run training sessions about Chill Skills for Kids in August.

Imagine Me With The Three Owls is available from Collins Booksellers on Maude in Shepparton. For more information, go to www.pathofcalm.com.au or phone Lisa Hemmings on 0409 449 432.
